

COST HIM $10 TO SAY "HELLO, GIRL!"

Besides, Mrs. Yellen Knocked Him Down Her Steps and Blackened His Eye.

THEN HE WAS ARRESTED

Magistrate Kernochan Fined Him and Publicly Complimented Her for Her Pluck.

Now we know why a telephone girl does not like to be called a "Hello Girl." Magistrate Kernochan, who never uses the word "hello" when it is possible to say "good morning," fined Frank Rosary $10 in the Yorkville Court today for using the salutation down on the east side last night. Rosary was arrested in front of No. 23 East Third street about 1 o'clock, after Mrs. Annie Yellen, of that number, had driven two stinging jolts and one other walling which Rosary said was a jab to his eyes and nose and sent him sprawling down her front steps. Rosary is a husky, strapping fellow. Mrs. Yellen is demure and small, but once aroused—my! "I left the 'L' train at Houston street after visiting my mother at Brook avenue and One Hundred and Seventy-ninth street," said Mrs. Yellen. "I hurried to my home. This big fellow followed me, and just as I reached my front door he said: "Hello, girl, won't you come back for a minute?" "I turned and hit him as often as I could. He fell down and then came back to strike me when the officer arrested him." "I thought she was one of them 'Hello girls,' your Honor, and didn't mean—" "A 'Hello Girl.' Do you mean a telephone girl?" asked the Magistrate. "Now, now, you know, Judge, one of those well-to-do girls, you know—the ones you can speak to after 1 o'clock down on the East Side," explained Rosary. "I know, you say," shouted the Magistrate. "I don't know what you're talking about. I was never on the East Side in my life." "You're Honor, I'm not what he calls a 'Hello Girl.' There's my husband right there, see, and I'm a respectable married woman," said Mrs. Yellen. Magistrate Kernochan complimented the little woman and said to Rosary: "Be careful to whom you say 'hello' after this. It isn't a pleasant word, anyhow. There are much nicer means of expression. Mrs. Yellen acted with perfect propriety. Her courage is to be commended, and I fine you $10."

"LOOP THE LOOP" GIRL SHOOTING AN ACCIDENT.

Coroner Dooley Exonerates Antoinette Dufranne in the Killing of of Mitzi Wallner.

Coroner Dooley held today an inquest on the death of Mitzi Wallner, a circus performer, who was shot on March 3 at No. 35 West Forty-second street by her roommate and friend, Antoinette Dufranne. The evidence showed that the shooting was accidental and Mrs. Dufranne was exonerated. Mitzi Wallner was known as the "Loop-the-Loop" girl. She rode bicycles and automobiles in loop-the-loop circus acts. It appears that she had an old revolver in her room which she believed was empty. Antoinette Dufranne picked up the weapon and, pointing it at Miss Wallner, pulled the trigger. The bullet pierced the heart of the circus performer.

EIGHT YEARS IN JAIL FOR WIFE-BEATING

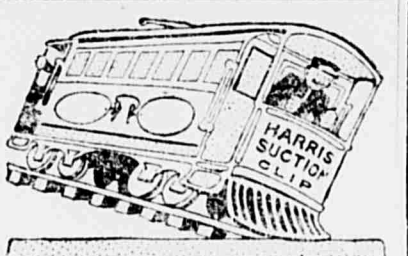

Married Twenty Years, Peter Connis Goes to Blackwell's for the Sixteenth Time.

BLACK HAND ASSOCIATE

Never Works, Daughter Says, and Beats Her Mother Every Day.

Peter Connis, who has been married twenty years, set out on his sixteenth trip to Blackwell's Island today on a charge of wife beating. Magistrate Breen sentenced him to six months, and when he has served it he will have spent almost eight years in prison for brutality to his wife. The man, who is fifty years old, and declared by his daughter to be an associate of Black Hand men, was arrested in his home at No. 222 East One Hundred and Ninth street last night. Policeman Forman heard the cries of the wife and daughter as he passed the house and interrupted what the wife said was her daily beating while her husband was out of jail. The daughter, Camilla, who, though twenty, is no larger than a child, declared to Magistrate Breen that she "loves" her father. "My father does nothing," she said, "but always has money. I believe he gets it from those Black Hand men he goes round with. We have had him sent to the Island sixteen times, but it does not seem to do any good. As soon as he gets out he comes home and beats us again. I wish you could send him up for life, Judge, for I think he will kill my mother before he gets through." "I wish I could send him up for life," said the Court, "but unfortunately I cannot. I will do the best I can and give him six months."

M'FARLAND FREED OF HERESY CHARGE

Brought by Rev. G. A. Cooke, Methodist Conference Dismissed It Quickly.

TOPEKA, March 12.—The conference for the northeast district of the Methodist Church began its sessions here yesterday, and about the first action taken was to exonerate Dr. John T. McFarland from the charges of heresy. The Rev. George A. Cooke, of Brandon, Vt., brought the charges against Dr. McFarland, who formerly was a minister in Topeka, but now lives in New York and has charge of Sunday-school publications. Dr. Cooke recently brought charges against Chancellor Day, of Syracuse University. Dr. McFarland issued two pamphlets, "Preservation versus the Rescue of the Child" and "The Book and the Child." It is the matter in these books which Dr. Cooke attacks, charging that author with teaching views that in effect deny and overthrow the entire scheme of salvation by faith. Dr. McFarland said Dr. Cooke was gaining much notoriety in the newspapers through what might be termed the "fad" of thinking heresy charges against ministers.
